Indian Knowledge System

Sree Narayana College, Kannur conducted an International Seminar on November 29 and 30, 2017. Dr Satheesh C P, the present Principal was granted a rupees five lakh, Major Research Project by ICHR in the March, 2016. The two-day international seminar-cum-workshop on Indian Martial Arts was the consequence of the MRP. The seminar was titled Martial Arts as Embodied Knowledge: Historicity, Paradigms and Perspectives. An academic seminar in a higher education institute, on the history, theory and aesthetics of Indian Martial Arts, is the first of its kind not just in Kerala, but in the whole of the country. Following the seminar, several workshops, one-day seminar and allied programmes were conducted by Dr Satheesh CP.

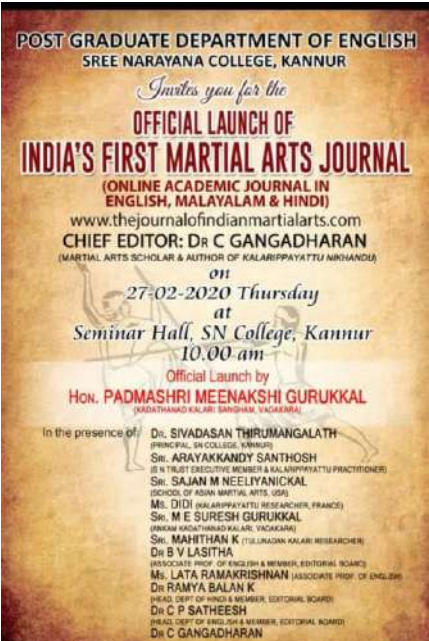

Under the auspices of the English Department of the college, Dr Satheesh with the help and assistance of Dr Gangadharan launched India's first online martial arts journal named, www.thejournalofindianmartialarts.com. Though not much work in continuation has been done with the journal, the first volume of the journal was posted online with a few articles. In the year 2023, Dr Satheesh was invited to Brazil to lead a six-member team of Kalaripayattu experts and Theyyam performers to participate in the six-day Vedanta Festival, conducted by a 2000-odd member community of Brazilians following Hindu religion and Vedanta spiritual practices, The six-day Hindu festival comprised of spiritual practices and cultural extragavanza including Theyyam and Kalaripayattu from Kerala. In 2024, Dr Satheesh was invited again and led a team of five members to Brazil.
